Description:

In an age where tradition and romanticism is a thing of the past, Langford offers a cedar rowboat that is a throw back to the days when rowing on a quiet lake or pond was an experience never forgotten. The boat is handcrafted from the finest BC red cedar with double oarlocks and a square stern.

For those who enjoy the solitude and peace of an early morning row or a quiet sunset outing this is the craft for you. The Heron design has graced the Muskoka Lakes for over 60 years, offering the ultimate in craftsmanship and beauty.
