Angler 13'6"

Description:

Looking for a light, stable canoe for one or two persons, for adults and children, on flat water or in light waves, and good for fishing, photography, or just plain fun paddling? The Angler is just for you!

Paddlers of any experience level can jump right in and go in this exceptionally stable little canoe, that handles very nicely. Small and nimble enough to find those hidden away fishing spots, it's the choice of the solo fisherman. You can even stand and cast from this platform!
